

This web site contains the service descriptions, standard rates and charges, and other general information relating to ACS Long Distance's data and voice services that are currently available in the marketplace. It is designed to allow business customers to easily access and view ACS LD's current offers in an updated and timely manner.

ACS LD reserves the right to change the terms, conditions and charges in from time to time. Notification of price changes will be made available at Regulatory Information Alaska Communications Enterprise and Business page.

This information does not constitute an offer to sell. Other terms, conditions and charges may apply. Business customers must satisfy ACS LD's eligibility criteria (such as deposits and term/revenue commitments) and purchase through an ACS LD specified contract. ACS LD's term plan contracts are available through ACS LD's account managers. Please contact your customer service center or ACS LD account manager for more information or to order any of the services listed in this informational posting.

For non-tariffed intrastate services, an individual agreement applies to these services. Most of these service descriptions, rates, terms, and conditions can be found at the Alaska Communications Enterprise and Business page. For those services not defined at the Alaska Communications Enterprise and Business page, see the ACS Long Distance Intrastate Tariff 476.
